

CAN FIRE PROTECT YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD?

PRAIRIE CROSSING GRAYSLAKE, ILLINOIS

Fires are a natural part of the prairie ecosystem, regenerating dormant seeds and nutrients for native plants. Controlled burns are used to mimic this phenomenon, resulting in the protection of plant life and the local community.

© Prairie Holdings Corporation

an exhibition at the
NATIONAL BUILDING MUSEUM

401 F Street NW Washington, DC 20001 | 202.272.2448 | www.NBM.org | Red Line Metro, Judiciary Square

Presenting Sponsor:

Official Media Partner:

GREEN COMMUNITY

OPEN FOR ONE FULL YEAR
OCTOBER 23, 2008 - OCTOBER 25, 2009